He will, if preferred, Purchase the Land Warrants at fair rates.

Application may be made to him at his Office, or if requested by letter, he will send to claimants Declarations, with suitable directions, which may be executed without the parties leaving their homes.

Hayes' Allied Ointment,

IS the first MEDICINE ever offered to the public for the Cure of all Humors.

It has stood the test for more than seven years; and in offering it to the public we are not ignorant of its operation. We know it to be the greatest ALLEVIATOR of PAIN and SUFFERING to those afflicted with any kind of Humor, and truly one of the greatest Blessings to mankind ever before the public, as we can show by the evidence of living witnesses.

Read the following—it speaks for itself.

Lawrence, June 12, 1854.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Lawrence, having used the Vegetable Allied Ointment prepared by Dr. E. B. Hayes, of Lowell, and being personally acquainted with the Doctor, feel pleasure in adding our testimony to all the Doctor claims for his medicine. Unlike other remedies in the market, this preparation performs its office speedily and, with certainty. The Ointment we have used with the most happy result, after vainly seeking relief by the free use of Sarsaparillas, Salves, &c., &c.

Our experience fully justifies us in confidently recommending it as the safest, and the only one known to us as perfecting all it claims.

HARRISON'S
Columbian Tonic Stimulant

WILL cure all diseases caused by prostration of digestive power. Its action is immediate; as a stimulant, to rouse the vital energy to its healthy force; as a tone, to sustain and perpetuate that force till healthy secretions are restored and natural power returns. It will remove all mild forms of Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Bilious Cholic, Fever, and Fever and Ague, and in connection with Harrison's Columbian Vegetable Expectic, will cure the most severe cases of these and other acute diseases in the shortest possible time. The Dyspeptic finds immediate relief, and permanent cure; in its use. For all Bronchial and Pulmonary affections, it has great restorative efficacy.

The alcohol and opium inebriates will find it a perfect substitute for both these disease-engendering and health-destroying articles. It is an exclusively vegetable composition; and a pure tonic, both the form or plan to relieve these instruments, but via their nervous centres and to the part of a friend of education and a good citizen. He proposed an annuity for twenty years, the interest of the bonds of the State for that period on interest at six per cent, to be deposited with the State Treasurer, and renewable at the end of twenty years, the interest of which should be paid to them annually, [illegible] the sum should be raised by each institution by private subscription or in money. There was also a provision that the annuity should cease [illegible] be expended at the institution should cease [illegible] the need no use to the public.

The plan was [illegible] of the above named institutions, the Agricultural Seminary—[illegible] the Legislature, [illegible] of the free will Baptists. [illegible] Waterville College, [illegible] which was then [illegible] and now [illegible] the Legislature of 1853, of which I was a member. The grants by the Legislature of 1853 had so fully convinced all who had examined the subject, that they were made more for the benefit of individuals who obtained the grants and located them, than for the institutions on whose names they were made, that no bill donating land found much favor in the popular branch of the Legislature.

Applications were made both years for and by several institutions for help, and only one was assisted by the Legislature and none by that of 1856. The Committee on Education reported in favor of assisting in some form, the Maine State Seminary, Waterville College, the Maine Wesleyan Seminary at Kents Hill, the East Maine Conference at Bucksport, and the Westbrook Seminary. The attempt was made at first to aid these institutions with grants of land in accordance with the practice of former Legislatures since we have been a State. But it was a signal failure in the House of Representatives, and it was found that the judgment of the House was such in view of former grants that no bill could pass appropriating an acre of land.

The wants of several of these institutions were so pressing, for a little aid that another mode was started; and that was, to give them money, but to take the money from the proceeds of sales of land already made. It was found that about $200,000 was due the State for land, and an attempt was made to give these institutions something from the sales as fast as collected. This plan was voted down. But there were men on both branches of the Legislature, who felt the necessity of aiding them in some form. And a third plan was devised by Mr W W Thomas of Portland, who could not be considered much of a [illegible] in spending the funds of the State. Mr Thomas's proposition was both the form or plan to relieve these institutions

Academies many of which are not now in operation. These grants have done but little good to any body except those who purchased them such as enormous wastes of public property as hardly ever known to any State in the Union England.

Thus, too was done by a party which is now charging fraud on the last Legislature for "extravagance" to make grants which were voted down. Who ever before heard of attempting to keep a body of measures which they did not do. It shows the weak condition of the assailants. It has been considered quite enough for any party in political controversy to defend itself for acts which it did do, and not for those which it discussed and refused to do.

The Legislatures, of 1847 and 1848, both democratic, made many grants of land. In fact it has been the policy of the State since the formation of its Government to aid seminaries of learning by grants of land. The records of the Land department show that 415,043 acres have been given to Academies Colleges and Seminaries of learning. So many corruptions and abuses had grown out of this mode of endowment, that not one acre could be got through either the Legislature of 1847 or 1848—and the Maine State Seminary could not have been assisted without changing the endowment from land to money, or bonds of the State.

If a party is to be called on to defend what was attempted to be done and failed, why not direct the eyes of the people to the Hill granting Limerick Academy a half township, and which was smuggled through the Senate without any vote on it, in the Legislature of 1847. This bill had in the House the vote of nearly every whig at, and came up all getting through after it was smuggled by striking out aid and going on. Let them examine the Senate and House rolls and they will find 8 whig cats & Co. who helped bring for the grants of land, about 15 half townships, all of which were attempted to be made and which were defeated in the House by the free soil Democrats. To organize the Government in 1848 for 6 weeks at an expense of 20,000 dollars. The last case this subject further and show how gross are those who have for a long time been in the habit of attempting to plunder the State, but attempt in vain. But it is useless, the people must be present to know something

O. W. ING'RSOLL.

Bangor, Sept 4 1855

Republican Meeting on Saturday Evening

It should be borne in mind that Hon. John P. Hale will deliver his closing speech of the campaign, to the Republicans of Bangor, on Saturday evening. The occasion will be one of much interest. The place of meeting is not yet fixed upon.

ELDER SANBORN'S LETTER.—The Bangor Journal contains a letter from a correspondent, which its editor introduces with a flourish of trumpets, as the production of a Universalist Elder. It is supposed, by many that the letter is from the pen of Parson Sanborn, who has interested himself in promoting the cause of Great Whiggery, and from such a man the letter is characteristic.

PRIVATE SCHOOL.—Miss A. O Wheeler's Private School for young ladies commences on Monday next, at No. 84 Main street.

Curious Thoroughly and—See that the Voters are Out!

All that is needed to insure a triumphant victory for the Republican cause, on Monday next, is a proper amount of effort and diligence, to secure a full attendance at the polls. Our opponents have engaged in a desperate fight—a final struggle to carry the State for the Hunker Democracy, and thus secure its vote for Pierce and Nebraskaism, next year. In this work they are aided by the "Liberal" Cary men who are and have always been bitterly opposed to the principles of the Maine Law—not only of the present law but of those which have preceded it. These elements united, are making, as we have said, a desperate and final effort to carry the State. Defeat them this year, and they will be finally demolished. That there is a large majority of the people of Maine opposed to placing such men in power, we have no sort of doubt. That majority must work however—it must be at the polls—if they wish to defeat the unholy alliance which is at work against them. No man can feel himself excused for absenting himself on Monday next, or even failing to, give his best effort to the cause—for any reason short of sickness or death. The present is a crisis—a turning point in the politics of the State, which may determine for years whether our influence shall go for freedom and temperance, or practically against them. No man can be guiltless, therefore, who does not work and vote.

"Citizen's Caucus"—A Trick of the Enemy.

The hunker fusionists of this city, who profess to be so straight and honorable in all their doings, have resorted to the dodge of calling a "citizen's caucus" to nominate representatives, in opposition to the Republican ticket. Nobody started that call but old line democratic straw whigs, and the call was neither published nor offered for publication in any other paper than the Bangor Journal. The trick is too transparent to deceive anybody, and we presume no one looks upon this nomination as anything more or less than just what it is—The Democratic and Strait out Fusion ticket. Every Republican should remember this, and vote nothing but the Republican ticket, to be nominated to-night.

Gorham L. Boynton, Esq., was Chairman of the "Fusion" "Citizens'" Caucus, and it was addressed by Abner Knowles, Esq. The candidates nominated are Wm. Cutler, Esq., and Wm. A. Blake, Esq.

Was Daniel Webster a "Disunionist"?

In May, 1851, Daniel Webster uttered the following language, at Syracuse, N. Y.—

"I never would consent and never have consented, that there should be one foot of slave territory added to what the old thirteen States had at the time of the formation of the Union. Never, never. If a man can show his face to me and say he can prove that I ever departed from that doctrine. He would not cast away, and shrink away, or have a mercenary press that he might carry out what an apostate thus liberty Daniel Webster has become. He has shown himself to be a hypocrite and a traitor."

For practically asserting the same doctrine, the Republicans are now stigmatized as "abolitionists," by the Silver Whig speakers and papers, who pretend to follow and pattern after Mr. Webster, in their political sentiments. That the doctrine of no more slave Territory and no more slave States, was never laid down in a stronger manner than by Mr Webster, in the above extract. Is the doctrine unconstitutional, thus enunciated by the great expounder of the Constitution, himself?

The St. John (N. B.) Tri-Weekly Courier says that a magnificent ship of 2468 tons, called the "Morning Light," was launched from the yard of W. & R. Wright of that city, on the 29th ult. She is considered by persons who are well acquainted with such matters, to be the finest and most expensively finished ship ever built in British North America, and is owned by the builders, who are about retiring from business, and have built this vessel specially for their own use.

MR. INGERSOLL'S LETTER.—By an accident in making up, we published, yesterday, the last part only of Mr. Ingersoll's letter upon the action of the last Legislature, and the slanderous and unconstitutional opposition. We publish the whole letter this morning, and ask for it a general perusal.

THE MONTHLY LAW REPORTER, for September, is received. It contains a large quantity of valuable legal information, and much matter of interest to every body. Published by Crosby Nichols & Co. Boston.

TOM CORWIN, "the Buckeye Boy" of Ohio, has come out for the Republican ticket. One of the old Whig guard, and ranking among the ablest Whigs in the country, his name is a "tower of strength." Whigs may be sure they are on the right track when Tom Corwin leads the way.

DR. GEORGE'S CLEANSING FLUID, for removing paint, pitch, oil &c. from clothing, appears to be an efficient article for the purposes for which it is recommended. The Doctor is in town, and will attend to the cases of such as desire to have old garments made into new.

The following resolutions were passed at the Meeting of the Penobscot Baptist Association, at Oldtown, yesterday (6th):

TEMPERANCE.

Resolved That in the opinion of this Association, the Law of this State, prohibiting the traffic in ardent spirits, is, in its essential character and provisions, demanded by the best interests of the people and conformed to the principles of Christian righteousness, and that all good and Christian men be urged to give it their cordial and active support.

SLAVERY.

Resolved, That as a body of Christians we feel called upon to bear our decided testimony against American Slavery as unrighteous and inhuman in principle and in spirit, and evil and hateful in its fruits; and especially to laymen of Christ and to ministers with us in our determination to oppose its extension, while we join with good men everywhere in prayers to the Lord on high that he will, through his Providence and the blessed influence of his gospel, bring this and every form of human bondage to a purpose end.

Gov. Hunt's Letter.

Some few (and but very few indeed,) papers at the North have made a great splurge about the secret letter of Ex-Governor Hunt, of New York, in opposition to a union of Anti Nebraska men. The effect of this letter in the State of New York, for which meridian the letter was intended, may be judged from the sentiment of the Whig press in that State.

The Albany Evening Journal of August 31, publishes seven columns of extracts from various whig papers in that State, showing a general dissent from the views entertained by Governor Hunt, and the Editor of the Journal says:

"Gov. Hunt's letter against a Union of Whigs and Republicans who regard re-storation to the aggressions of slavery as a paramount political duty, has elicited a free expression of sentiment from the whig press. A partial embodiment of this sentiment will be found in our columns to-day. With the single exception of the New York Commercial Advertiser, there is not a reliable whig paper in all the State that approves Gov Hunt's letter. The reason for this universal dissent from the views of a distinguished whig, is found in the thorough conviction that in giving themselves to the cause of freedom, to free territory, whigs are discharging the first and highest duty. In the absence of other issues, no whig feels that in devoting himself to the cause of freedom he in any sense compromises his principles or is derelict in duty."

The Whig Candidate in Vermont.

The Boston Atlas says:—Half a dozen men, calling themselves "the Vermont State Whig Convention," met on the 8th of August at White River Junction, and nominated the Rev. Dr. Wheeler for Governor. We oppose the meagreness of the Convention did not admit of Committees, for the REVEREND gentleman was not an owned of the dubious honor conferred upon him until he saw it in the newspapers. He immediately wrote the following letter to the Burlington Free Press:—

BURLINGTON, Aug. 27 1855

MR EDITOR.—I have just now seen, en passant, for the first time, the proceedings of the Vermont State Whig Convention at White River Junction, August 8, 1855."

From what is said in the proceedings of the Convention it might be inferred that I had written a letter to the Convention. I replied to a request to be present. I did not speak of the "Whig party," in any form, but of the importance of Whig principles to the healthful success of any party intending to be permanent. The nomination of myself for Governor was made without my knowledge or expectation in any way, and as I have received no communication on the subject, I had intended to take no public notice of it. J. WHEELER.

A correspondent of the Bangor Journal says there were but 85 men present at a recent Republican meeting in Hartland, addressed by Mr. Steward. If this were true, it would not be very bad for a town which threw but 46 votes for Mr. Morrill, last fall.

Varieties.

Singular Fatality.—We recently heard what struck us as a very singular remark of one of a citizen of our town losing eight relatives by drowning at different periods. His father, three brothers, two brothers in law, a nephew and a son, have found a watery grave. While one brother-in-law, seven of them were drowned in the vicinity of this Island, and the adjacent waters, the eighth was lost in the Pacific Ocean.—Nantucket Inquirer

A newspaper is soon to be published, in the city of Cairo, in Egypt. This paper to be printed in Italian under the patronage of the Pasha, is a fact certainly significant, and goes to understand that the light of the press can even illumine that Egyptian darkness so fabled for its deep and supreme subterfuges.

Sch Juliet, from Calais, lying at Fox Point wharf, Providence, was accidentally run into on 2d inst, by sch Robert F. Stockton, from Philadelphia, and had stern stove, &c. The latter vessel lost rat head, and received other trifling damage.

Liberty in France.—A gentleman recently from Europe tells us the following story:

Mons. ——, of Paris, who is not an imperialist, had a very fine, but a very savage dog, which he named Sebastopol. On being asked the reason, at all apt, a few days since, for giving his dog such a singular name, replied "Because he can't be taken." Whereupon the owner of the dog was promptly arrested for his disloyal unbelief. We are inclined to believe there is more freedom in St Petersburg than in Paris.—N. Y. Mirror

THE STONINGTON RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The accident happened about three miles below the Kingston depot, when the train was going at the rate of twenty miles an hour. The engineer, Mr. Phillips Lovell, Esq., says he first experienced a severe shock as if he had run over something, when he immediately shut off steam and the train ran about thirty yards, and then stopped so suddenly that the Boston and Providence second class cars ran together in such a manner as to completely smash them. The two first class cars then ran upon these, but without materially damaging them. The two second class cars were filled with passengers, most of whom, wonderful to relate, escaped with slight bruises.

As near as could be ascertained from appearances, the accident was occasioned by a rail having been taken up by some villain, who, to gratify his malice, thus endangered the lives of hundreds. Those who saw the train consider it a most a miracle that a large number of persons were not instantly killed.

At the place where the accident occurred, there was a steep bank with a swamp on each side, with about three feet of water, and had the car rolled down the embankment, the loss of life would have been terrible.

The Belfast man who was injured, was James Crosby, (back and hip badly bruised). He was on his way to California.

NOVEL ARTICLE OF ECONOMY.—It seems that the bed for a horse is to be furnished by the board. We noticed at Katherne's Stables in Washington street, on Saturday, several teams, unloading an immense quantity of saw-dust, which is to be used in the stables of the horses, for them to sleep upon, instead of the more expensive article of straw. They have just received a cargo of three hundred cords, and it is thought that it will be as fully convenient in the use, as well as comfortable for the animals. It certainly will be healthy. The saw-dust is brought from the new mills down East, and costs at the rate of about three dollars per ton, freighage and all included.—Boston Times.

Prof. Gibbs, at the recent "scientific meetings," at Providence, explained (?) Ampere's theory of the binary structure of elements, with especial reference to "chemical polarity." He stated by adopting this theory, "an chemical change of sucrine into ch aromeline would be clearly exhibited thus:

$$C_{12}H_{11}O_{11}Cl.C_{12}H_{10}O_{11}+HCl.$$

It isn't any small thing to be posted up on these scientific matters! And then the infallibility of the methods of communicating information is admirable.

The Horrible Tragedy in Western New York—The Bloodiest Butchery for Many Years.

The Auburn (N. Y.) American furnishes the details of the horrible massacre of a father, mother and brother, by a son, in the town of Sterling, a brief account of which has been given by telegraph. The American says:

Entering the house we were shown into the east room, and on a bed in that room, at the south side, covered with a sheet, laid the bodies of Mark Estage aid, Mary Fitzgerald, (his wife,) and James Fitzgerald their son. The spectacle was horrible. Mark Fitzgerald occupied the front side of the bed and was lying in nearly the same position in which he was found immediately after the murder. He was an Irishman about 45 years of age, and some five feet nine inches high, of somewhat coarse build, and with light hair, scarcely covering a rather high forehead. Next to him laid his wife, Mary, about 51 years of age—stout and fair—and evidently a woman who had led a busy life. Beside her reposed the remains of her son James—a plump and stout lad of about 15 years of age. All these were butchered to death by John Fitzgerald their son and brother, with an axe.

Mark Fitzgerald evidently laid with his head turned towards his wife when he was struck. The blow he received was an awful and a deadly one. It clove near through his neck, and only left his head upon its shoulders by a short strip of skin. His wife startled by the jar and noise of the blow, must have risen up instantly on her elbow, and put out her arms to save herself and husband, for the blows the monster dealt were inflicted in her shoulder, the top of the spine, and the neck. There were four, and each of them was mortal. One laid the whole neck and shoulder open. One gashed deep into her neck. One severed the spine near the head. The other was further down her back. She was found with her left arm thrown over her husband's breast. He had his hands folded across his bosom. Both must have died at once. Poor James was sleeping on a lounge opposite the bed. His mother struck him a cruel blow which hurled him to the floor, and laid open his left cheek. The next blow struck higher, and cutting the face on the same side, passed above the ear and penetrated the brain.

When found he was on his hands and knees alive, able to speak, in a pool of blood, and only three or four feet from the bed where his father and mother were lying dead. He was at once cared for, and every thing that could be done by a physician, but he died about seven o'clock yesterday morning. He has his senses some time, and spoke once or twice, but soon after five o'clock became delirious, and raved raving about his mother.

The room in which the bodies laid was separated by a partition from another and a larger room called the kitchen. At one end of this was an alcove, and on that a bed. In this bed, John the murderer, and his brother Patrick, aged 12, were accustomed to sleep. On this night they retired at the usual time, but John refused to sleep with Patrick, alleging that the weather was too warm. Accordingly he had down on a blanket under a window in the room, and Patrick falling asleep in bed heard nothing, until he was aroused at three o'clock, by hearing some heavy body fall in his parents room. He rose at once, and went toward the door of this room, and as he did so he met his brother John coming out, exclaiming "Pat! there's some one in father's room." Patrick at once drew on his pantaloons, and ran to a neighbor's—Mr. O'Neil's—nearby. He noticed as he went out, that the front door was fastened on the inside. He went out alone, and soon returned with Mr O'Neil. On his way he met John in the road. He said he had chased to "niggers" from the house, but they did not see any one in the street. They lighted a candle on entering the house, and to startling was the murdered bodies. The alarm was at once given. Neighbors came in, and Dr Plumb did all in his power to save James.

The testimony elicited before the Coroner was full and fairet, and fixed the guilt of this awful deed upon John Fitzgerald—in fact, when charged with it by a neighbor, the monster admitted the crime. Before the Coroner, however, he refused to say anything word pro or con.

Fatigue also is a stoutly built young fellow, as we said about 18 years of age. His features are not strongly marked with intelligence, but his expression is extraordinarily smart and shrewd. His forehead is low, his hair black and very curly. His general expression of countenance last night and this morning was churlish, dogged and fiendish, and not occasionally he cried out, wringing his hands—"Oh, my poor mother! Oh, my parents!"

The excitement all through the region of country bordering upon the scene of these murders was great. As the news spread, the astonishment indignation and horror of the people rose to an unprecedented pitch, and during the day not less than 1500 persons visited the house. A few proposed to wreak summary vengeance upon the atrocious wretch, and hang him to the first tree, but obedience to the laws rose paramount to every other consideration, and neither the culprit nor the officers were molested with.

John Fitzgerald is a wild, wayward, revengeful boy. There have been differences of opinion and sharp chastisings of opinion, spiritual and temporal between him and his parents for some months.—The night preceding the murder he threatened to knock his mother down with a stick. Because she did not get his tea ready the moment he wished it.

From the Oswego Times.

EXAMINATION OF THE PRISONER.

After examination of witnesses, Justice Tilford requested the presence of the prisoner. On appearing, he said to him, "John, you are charged with the murder of father, mother and brother—I wish to ask you a few questions, but I will say to you that you need not answer them unless you choose. Do you know how your father, mother and brother received their wounds?

Prisoner—I do. With an axe.

Justice—In whose hands?

Prisoner—In my own! I tried to poison father and mother about a week ago.

Justice—What was the poison in?

Prisoner—In a phial in my trunk. I got it in Oswego, don't know who of. I did not get the poison with intent to kill father and mother.

Justice—Had you conversation with any one in relation to the matter, before you committed the deed?

Prisoner—I had conversation with some one about killing father and mother, but object to telling who whom.

After arraigning, we were admitted in the room containing the bodies, which had been washed and laid out. While we stood gazing at the lifeless forms, a slight opening was made by those surrounding the bed, and the murderer stood before us looking at his victims. Hardly a breath broke the stillness as he gazed at their pallid upturned faces, until a sob broke from him, when his whole frame shook with emotion. It was but transitory, however, as he regained his composure and was led out of the room in a moment.

The prisoner was put in the custody of a constable, with one or two assistants, and kept at the "Mill" last night.

THE SUBMARINE CABLE.—New York, Sept. 5. The James Adger arrived this morning from Sydney, C. B., with the Telegraph excursionists, all well. We learn by her that about 40 miles of the marine cable had been payed out, when a heavy storm came on, in consequence of which the cable was obliged to be cut, in order to save the vessel. The nature of the bottom where the cable lies is such that the company gave up all hope of recovering it, and consequently the remainder was landed at Sydney, and the whole abandoned to the underwriters.

The terms of the insurance were, that the underwriters were to be holden until the whole cable was securely laid, provided certain conditions were complied with. As these conditions were strictly followed, the company will lose nothing, excepting a serious delay caused by the accident.

A CAPTAIN MURDERED AT SEA.—Charleston, Sept. 3.—The ship Ariel, from New York for Shanghai, was brought down to this port to-day, by the revenue cutter Aiken, the captain, Agid, having been murdered at sea, as it was supposed, by two apprentices named Henry Girard and George Anderson. The United States authorities have charge of the vessel, officers and crew. The captain was found dead in his berth on the 17th August by the first mate, who at the request of the passengers, officers and crew put the vessel back.

New Orleans, Sept. 3.—Deaths in the city last week 400, including 296 from yellow fever.

One of John Phoenix's Stories.

Dr. Tushmaker was never regularly bred as a physician or surgeon, but he possessed naturally a strong mechanical genius and a fine appetite, and finding his teeth of great service in gratifying the latter propensity, he concluded that he could do more good in the world, and create more real happiness thereby, by putting the teeth of the inhabitants in good order, than in any other way, so Tushmaker became a dentist. He was the man who first invented the method of placing small cog-wheels in the back teeth for the more perfect mastication of food, and he claimed to be the original discoverer of that method of filling cavities with a kind of putty, which, becoming hard directly, causes the tooth to ache so grievously that it has to be pulled, thereby giving the dentist two successive fees for the same job. Tushmaker was one day seated in his office in the city of Boston, Massachusetts, when a stout old fellow named Byles presented himself to have a back tooth drawn. The dentist seated his patient in the chair of torture, and opening his mouth, discovered there an enormous tooth, on the right hand side, about as large, as he afterwards expressed it, "as a small Polyglot Bible." I shall have trouble with this tooth, thought Tushmaker, but he clapped on his heaviest forceps, and pulled. It didn't come. Then he tried the turn-screw, exerting his utmost strength, but the tooth wouldn't stir. "Go away from here," said Tushmaker to Byles, "and return in a week, and I'll draw that tooth for you, or I'll know the reason why." Byles got up, clapped a handkerchief to his jaw, and went forth. Then the dentist went to work, and in three days he invented an instrument which he was confident would pull anything. It was a combination of the lever, pulley, wheel and axle, inclined plane, wedge and screw. The castings were made, and the machine put in the office, over an iron chain, rendered perfectly stationary by iron rods going down into the foundations of the granite building. In a week old Byles returned, he was clapped into the iron chair, the forceps connected with the machine attached firmly to the tooth, and Tushmaker stationing himself in the rear, took hold of a lever four feet in length. He turned it slightly.

Old Byles gave a groan, and lifted his right leg. Another turn, another groan, and up went the leg again. "What do you raise your leg for?" asked the doctor. "I can't help it," said the patient. "Well," rejoined Tushmaker, "that tooth is bound to come now." He turned the lever clear round with a sudden jerk, and snapped old Byles' head clear and clear from his shoulders, leaving a space of four inches between the severed parts! They had a post mortem examination—the roots of the teeth were found extending down the right side, through the right leg, and turning up in two prongs under the sole of the right foot!—"No wonder," said Tushmaker, "he raised his right leg." The jury thought so too, but they found the roots much decayed, and five surgeons swearing that mortification would have ensued in a few months, Tushmaker was cleared on a verdict of "justifiable homicide." He was a little shy of that instrument for some time afterward, but one day an old lady, feeble and flaccid, came in to have a tooth drawn, and thinking it would come out very easy, Tushmaker concluded, just by way of variety, to try the machine. He did so, and at the first turn drew the old lady's skeleton completely and entirely from her body, leaving her a mass of quivering jelly in the chair! Tushmaker took her home in a pillowcase. She lived seven years after that, and they called her the "India Rubber Woman." She had suffered terribly with the rheumatism, but after this occurrence never had a pain in her bones. The dentist kept them in a glass case. After that, the machine was sold to the contractor of the Boston custom-house and it was found that a child of three years of age could, by a single turn of the screw, raise a stone weighing twenty-three tons. Smaller ones were made, on the same principle, and sold to the keepers of hotels and restaurants. They were used for boning turkeys. There is no moral to this story, whatever, and it is possible that the circumstances may have become slightly exaggerated. Of course, there can be no doubt of the truth of the main incidents.—California Pioneer.

THE STRAIGHT WHIG POSITION ON THE SLAVE QUESTION.—The resolution passed by the Straight Whig Convention on the Slavery question cannot be kept too prominently before the people. It was as follows:

6 Resolved, That the great question connected with the subject of slavery is the destiny of Kansas and Nebraska as to the establishment within their limits of free or slave institutions, and as that question will be determined by the inhabitants of those territories, and there exists a disposition on the part of the people living on the western frontier of the State of Missouri to unlawfully interfere with the settlers who have already gone into those territories,—we call upon the President and his Constitutional advisers, and upon the Congress of the United States, to meet the emergency like patriots, and rising above the influence of party and faction, to maintain law and order in Kansas and Nebraska, by protecting the actual settlers in all their civil rights, and especially in the free and unmolested exercise of the right of suffrage."

Now in the name of all that is sensible, let us ask what chance there is for Kansas to be a free State of the whole question be left to the people of the Territory, who are ruled over and governed by Missouri bullies? What is the use of sense in calling on the President to protect the settlers when they know he won't do any such thing? Hunt's be just turned Gov. Reeder out of office for attempting to protect the rights of the people? Yet with all these facts, the Straight Whigs say "leave it to the people of the territory."

Now Republicans say, that Congress shall interfere, and by solemn enactment prohibit the existence of slavery in the territories. Which party is right and which will best protect the interests of the North? Think of this, you who have been whigs.—Kennebec Journal

THE CROPS. The wheat in this vicinity is all secured and generally without injury from the weather. Some damage in particular locations, has been done by the weevil, and we have heard some complaints of the rust. Generally, however, the harvest will be more than an average one per acre, while in the grass, it will far exceed that of any year before. We are satisfied that there never was before so much wheat raised in this vicinity as the present season. Oats are very abundant and the yield per acre was probably never greater. Potatoes never looked better, and we think there will be little damage from the rot. They must be cheap the coming winter. Corn is stout; but Jack Frost must delay his visits another fortnight for it to ripen.—Dexter Gem.

CAUSE OF SANTA ANNA'S FLIGHT.—Inspector, the Washington Correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, learns from a gentleman just arrived from Mexico, that the admitted cause of Santa Anna's flight was the desire to save his private fortune, which is immense.

The skirmish at the National Bridge is said to have been occasioned by the attempt of the pursuing party to capture a particular box of gold, which although marked as the private property of Santa Anna, was claimed to be government funds.

A friend of Grattan proposed to cut down a fine old tree because it stood in the way of the house. "You mistake," said Grattan, "it is the house that stands in the way of the tree, and if either must come down shall be the house."

SAD ACCIDENT AT WATERVILLE.—We learn that Miss Jean, a young lady of 18 years of age, sister-in law of Josiah H. Drummond, Esq., was killed in Waterville on Wednesday evening—being knocked down by a carriage, the horses attached to which had become frightened, and run away. The pole of the carriage struck her in the side, and injured her internally, so that she lived but half an hour.

EXCESSIVE STRAITNESS IN EASTPORT.—We learn that the Strait Whigs of Eastport held a caucus last Saturday evening to choose delegates for the County Convention. After long waiting, they made out to get a Chairman—but had to give it up on a Secretary. Some dozen were nominated, but they all declined, giving the very good reason that they belonged to the Republican party. Mr Hayden then tried his hand at a speech, after which a committee of five were chosen to nominate a list of delegates. But only three of the committee could be found—and so Hayden ended the agony by moving that the committee be the delegates—He happened to be one of them. To such a plight has sunk the late dominant party of Eastport!—For land labortaxer.

FURTHER SUCCESSES OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTIONISTS.—The Mexican correspondent of the New York Herald, writes from Rio Bravo that the forces of Santa Anna, under the command of Col. Cobos, had been defeated at Lagos, by the Revolutionists under Col Sayas, on the 29th of July, with a loss of 300 men killed and wounded and missing.

The Reynosa Revolutionists were in full march to assist their brethren.

At Zacatecas, Col Zuloga had 1200 mounted riflemen en route to attack Col. Paven. San Luis Potosi would soon pronounce.

Gen Wool was notifying Matamoras for the party of the late Dictator, but the town would be complete y invested. The citizens were flying from it daily.

YELLOW FEVER IN THE WEST INDIA ISLANDS.—KNOW BERMUDA.—By the brig Lady Chapman, we have Bermuda dates to the 29th of August.

The yellow fever was raging at Barbadoes, and at Surinam. At the former island the deaths had reached to thirty a day, and in the latter Colony the mortality was still greater.

Demarara was unusually healthy. The new sugar crop had just commenced, and a large number of vessels were lying in the river, waiting for cargoes.

A MODEL HUSBAND.—The Richmond (Va.) Despatch says there is a negro man in that city who, for the last twenty years, has never failed to walk four miles at night to visit his wife, and to return to his employment.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills have effected a number of wonderful Cures of Sore Legs. Anthony Harris of Scarsdale, Westchester County, Virginia, was a sufferer for seventy-eight years from sore legs, so bad at times that humanity could not scarcely bear it as they were covered with wounds and passed flesh. His friends had given up all hopes of his ever recovering, and the use of this ointment was considered a mere experiment, as the doctors said that it was of no use. However, Harris found from several people the good effects Holloway's pills had produced in cases of the kind, he made up his mind to give them a trial after using them for a few weeks he felt much better, and by continuing them for two months and a half he was perfectly cured after being 78 years a cripple, and exhausted beyond all human aid.

Railway's Regulators.

The Third Great Medical Discovery of Radway & Co.

ONE REGULATOR is sufficient to regulate the Bowels, Liver and Pancreas to a healthy discharge of their functions.

Two will insure a pleasant discharge from the Bowels, at a regular period of time every day.

Four to six will purge thoroughly all corrupt and acrimonious humors from the alimentary canal

Important to Pill Takers.

Those who are in the habit of taking pills will find RADWAY'S REGULATOR the most pleasant, safe, and effectual regulator of the Bowels, Liver, Pancreas, and the most certain Purifier of the Blood in use.

One of Radway's Regulators is superior, in point of medical strength and efficacy, to six of the most popular and best approved cathartic pills

Radway's Regulators.

Radway's Regulators are most carefully prepared from extracts and gums of trees, plants, roots and herbs. There are no pills in use that will act upon the Liver, Pancreas, Bowels, the salivary Glands and Nerves, so pleasantly and effectually as the R R REGULATORS No pills can be taken for any length of time with the same safety to the constitution, for, instead of debilitating the system by powerful and drastic purging, they act pleasantly upon the bowels, and impart strength to every nerve and tissue of the body.

Regulators vs Pills.

We are continually asked, what is the difference between Radway's Regulators and ordinary pills?

We answer that pills, as they are ordinarily prepared and sold by different manufacturers, are generally of two kinds—those which excite on the bowels merely, called purgative pills, and those which excite the secretion of the liver, and are called mercurial or liver pills Radway's Regulators resemble pills merely in shape, but differ in every other characteristic. They act not only on the bowels, but on the liver, skin, pancreas, and kidneys, regulating each organ to a healthy action. They are not drastic, nor never gripe pain as most purgative pills do for they stimulate the liver without encangering the patient with salivation, as mercurial pills do for containing no mineals in their composition, they are harmless when used for a length of time They are tasteless, being enveloped in an elegant coating of gum 1 to 3 regulate, 3 to 5 purge—good at all times

As a Family Physic

RADWAY'S REGULATOR is the most innocent safe, mild and pleasant pills in use They are a quick and certain cure of Costiveness, Indigestion, Liver Complaint, Bad ney Complaint, Jaundice, Head Aches, Nervousness, Melancholy, Diseases of the Bladder,

Female Complaints,

Leucorrhœa, Fluor Albus, White and Irregularities of all kinds,

Bilious Diseases,

Bile on the stomach, Bilious Cholic, Enlargement of the Spleen, and all Chronic Affections of the Liver and Kidneys.

R. R. R. REMEDIES are sold by Druggists everywhere.

For great cures performed in a short time by R. R. Relief, see next weeks paper R R R. Remedies act quick—the moment they are taken or applied their health relieving efficacy is superseded.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE.

Capt Daniel Abbott, Franklin, Maine, July 16, 1853, says, "I was taken sick one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston S C At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite At last taking up a newspaper having your advertisement of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in it, I sent for some immediately. This was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock The effect was as rapid as the fatal had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man—I hate not been without your medicine since, having been sailing between Baltimore, Charleston, and the West India Islands ever since I have now given up going to sea and reside in this place, where you should have an agency, as you could sell large quantities of it."

Jos. H. Hall & Co, Presque Isle, Aroostook Co, Maine, April 21, 1854, say "We herewith send you a certificate of a cure performed by the use of only one bottle of the German Bitters We think Mr Clark to be a man of veracity, and have no doubt of the truth of his story."

Messrs Jos H Hall & Co—Gentlemen—In answer to your inquiries I will state that my daughter, aged about 10 years, has been complaining of a pain in her side for six or seven years, and about the first of January last was taken down and confined to her bed The pain in her side was very severe, besides being troubled with pains between her shoulders and in her breast. From reading a number of cures performed by "Hoofland's German Bitters, I was induced to try them in her case, and sent to your store and purchased one bottle she had taken it but a few days when she began to improve, and now, after taking only one bottle, she is enjoying better health than she has for years—she feels no pain in her side or in any part of her body, and attributes her cure entirely to the German Bitters. WILLIAM CLARK.

Jackson Brook, Aroostook Co, Me.

You should bearin mind that these Bitters are entirely vegetable, thereby possessing advantages over most of the preparations recommended for similar diseases.

DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S

PULMONIC SYRUP,

THE proprietor of this medicine has been many years engaged in the practice of his profession as a physician and during that time has made the study of Consumption his particular business. While thus employed he discovered the remedy which he now offers to the public, and which has never failed to cure when taken according to the directions. Many of the most eminent physicians in the United States have given them to their children for whooping cough, with the most happy effects. They were promptly cured them in a few days. Two months is the time in which a cure is generally effected, and three months the longest time required in the most obstinate case. Directions how to take the medicine accompany each bottle.

Dr Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, are prepared and sold by Dr J H SCHENCK, at his principal office, No 15 Sansom street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A M to 1 P M. Consultation free, but advice in writing must be paid for.

The Pulmonic Syrup is taken to ripen the matter and cause the patient to throw it up by a gentle expectoration; the Sea Weed Tonic is then taken to heal the ulcers and purify the blood, and the Mandrake Pills to cleanse the liver and relieve the system of the bile. These medicines do not interfere with the ordinary pursuits of business, and can be taken by persons in any climate, without making any change in their diet, except to avoid exposure to cold and wet.

Dr Schenck is professionally at his principal office in Philadelphia every Saturday, from 9 A M to 1 P M. Consultation free, but advice in writing must be paid for.

Dr Schenck is also professionally at his office in Boston, No 3 Tremont Row, every Monday, from 9 A M to 1 P M. Consultation free, but advice in writing must be paid for.

Dr Schenck is also professionally at his office in New York, No 67 Maiden Lane, every Tuesday, from 9 A M to 1 P M. Consultation free, but advice in writing must be paid for.

Dr Schenck is also professionally at his office in Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A M to 1 P M. Consultation free, but advice in writing must be paid for.

In 1849 Dr Schenck practised in Trenton, New Jersey, in Philadelphia, and Virginia, and the practice of his profession while in each of those places was attended with the most unbounded success. The Pulmonic Syrup has become known to the public, and has received incontestible evidence of its virtues.

Both of his principal and his assistant medicines which appear to be necessary in connection with his Pulmonic Syrup, are to be had of the agents named below.

All kinds of Liver complaints, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Tetter, Scald Head, Ringworm, Pimples on the face, Blotches on the skin, Female Irregularities, Piles, Fever and Ague, Fever Sores, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Side, Breast, and Lungs, Night Sweats, Whooping Cough, Croup, Influenza, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Measles, Incipient Consumption, and all diseases arising from a bad state of the blood, or requiring the use of an expectorant or alterative medicine, are speedily cured by the use of these medicines.
